Laugh and the World
Laughs with you

Jean Margaret Fortier
Sometimes know as Jenny She full of the - duce and very happy go - lucky. She was born in 1933. On Sept. 24/49 she will be sweet sixteen and never been kissed (we hope) Her favorite school subjects are, art and health. Jennifer likes hamburger. Her hobbies, are song collecting, sewing swimming (in a two piece suit) She dislikes being pushed into quarrels. Her ambition is being the wife of some tall, blonde fella. Happy housekeeping!

Marjorie Dora Blimkie

June 3, 34 this lassie was born. She's lively and quick and makes the boys mourn. Her favorite school subjects are drawing and printing. With pencil in hand. You'll find her just sitting. One of her detests is those city slicks. When she's just one of those country kids. Her hobbies are dancing & kissing the boys. To be whirled round the floor is one of her joys. From this you may think our Margie is crude for sauerkraut is her favorite food. Her greatest ambition is saying "yes sir" for she wants to be a stenographer. On the side we think this is slightly messy for a redheaded lad is inclined to change this.

Gerald Cecil Hutt.

Gerald Cecil Hutt sometimes known as Jerry. He is full of gumption and very seldom merry. May 22nd is his birthday if you wish to know. And when that day comes spinning round. You'll find him lying low. He's ten years old and born in 34. When literature class comes round. He's always feeling fine. And when the chores are done at night and things are sunning slack. You'll always find him in the yard ariding horse back. Everything in the world this lad detests (excepting candy and this he likes the best. To be a farmer is his greatest ambition. For a tractor you'll find him wishing 'God farming Gerald.'

Alfred Walter Richards

Mrs. Phyllis E. Stewart

To my Five Mile Creek pupils:

You will notice that this message is written as if you were quite a lot older than you are. However it is written in the hope that some day you may be able to use the advice contained herein for the betterment of your own character.

May I offer the following as guides for you to follow?

1. Always be a friend for if you are you will meet friends and make friends wherever you go.
2. Learn to be independent yet do not neglect to fill your place in society
3. Do not build a habit of borrowing what you are unable to repay
4. Let your thoughts dwell on clean subjects, your words speak only clean and happy thoughts and always strive to learn more and better yourselves.

5. Learn the value of money and take care of what you earn. Always prepare for a rainy day but don't become so miserly that you risk losing your friends.

6. Remember that we have a God. Rely on Him not only in times of trouble but let Him be your friend and lead your lives daily so that you will never blush for shame when you meet Him face to face in the hereafter.

This, my last year of teaching, has been a pleasant one.

I shall always remember you and hope you will find a tiny space in your hearts for me as I have in my heart for each of you.

To each of you I wish all the success possible
May your futures be filled with happiness

Good luck to you all

yours sincerely, Phyllis E. Stewart

Sports.

Link.

The rink was started Feb. 10th. It was 20' x 15'. 58 barrels of water were used. Sixteen barrels from Walter Richards and three tanks and 4 barrels from Albert Blimkie. A snow fence was put up on the north and west sides. A four foot bank of snow was shovelled off by all the children. Though it was a tiresome job we had many spills and thrills.

Hike

We left the school at 9:15. Half of the children walked. The others rode horseback and bikes. But many were unable to attend. On the way down we saw a black bear. It was the first that some had seen. It was about 2 mi on the other side of the creek. Arriving at the creek at 11:15 we started collecting food for the fire. Sticks for roasting wieners and marshmallows were gathered. Before we started reading our literature books. At twelve o'clock a fire was lit and hungry stomachs were filled to capacity. Mrs. Stewart thought she would be funny and with so much energy she climbed a tree. We started home at 2:15 tired but yet well pleased.

The Ball Team

Catcher ÷ Marjorie Second base ÷ Jayce
Pitcher ÷ Nancy Third base ÷ Joan
First base ÷ Anne Left field ÷ Jean
Shortstop ÷ Gus Centre field ÷ Alfred Right field ÷ Irene

Our 1949 ball team in their white shirts and blue slacks, have been successful and otherwise. The first game was played on June 3, when Sonne a very friendly school conquered us 28 to 10. However this defeat was soon forgotten when on June 10 we trimmed Twilight 20 to 14 and won a new softball as a result. This last game was played at the Crystal Creek picnic. The last game of the season took place at the school picnic on June 24 when Five Mile defeated Twilight, the score 7 to 17, and then Crystal Creek defeated Five Mile the score 5 to 11.

Social Activities

Dance.

The dance was held Apr. 29th. The musicians were Robin Blinkie, and Mrs. Stewart. Gordon Olson was supposed to be one of the musicians but didn't show up. Admission was 75¢ per couple. 50¢ for men. A 25¢ fine was rendered for women not wearing calico dresses. A delicious lunch was served by Marjorie Blinkie, Joyce Scott, Gus Blinkie, Alfred Richards and Richard Lawrence.

The Christmas Concert.

We have all forgotten the order of our Christmas Concert but this outline with a few words will suffice.

(1) Opening Solo: Star of the east by Anne. She wore a long white dress (2) Rose Hopesh Piece - This was the only extensively costumed affair - Anne, Nancy, Joyce, Irene, Esther and Isabel wore white blouses with floor length rose crepe paper skirts. Each carried a rope covered with green crepe paper with three roses entwined. Jean was soloist - gowned in a white blouse and furilla crepe paper floor length skirt and wearing a corsage of roses - sang Bend Sinners (3) Recitation by Esther, Richard and Isabel. The Forgetful Carpenter and as they recited they built house with shak on a black board. (4) The Four Rebels, Gus Alfred, Gerald and Irene, Joyce. Joyce played Santa and her pillows kept slipping. The boys (for Irene played the part of one) took a scolding from Santa. (5) The slippers of Cinderella - the biggest miss of the evening but we enjoyed it. We wore wedding gowns, house coats, we dumped a chicken on the floor, the clock was an hour fast and Mrs. Stewart played the part of an old witch. There also was a little telegram that wasn't there. (6) Recitation by Gerald Life get Idrians and this poem did. (7) Church Service: Alfred made a wonderful minister. We had a beautiful white background with two Cathedral windows. Choir members were Jean, Anne, Joyce, Nancy, Gus, Marjorie and Irene who sang a beautiful double duet. There is a song in the air. The janitor gave a recitation & Joyce gave a bible reading. The sermon was interesting though several ignorant members of the audience interrupted it. Kenneth Patterson, master of ceremonies, Santa appeared following the concert gave presents and candy to all.
